received the official order to resume work. It is said that the settlement will cause a big loss to the Amalgamated Association. The plight of the tinplate workers is said to be especially severe, as they will either be forced to remain out or withdraw from the association. It is claimed they are bitter against the Amaigamated leaders, and may form a separate organization. According to reports received in Pitteburg, the settlement only affects the three companies in dispute-the American Tinplate, the American Sheet Steel and the American Steel Hoopand these companies will remain non-
